

BEQUESTS

Help us preserve and share these stories and objects for future generations.

A gift in your will (or Bequest) that benefits a cause you care about is an amazing legacy.

Your Lawyer with expertise in estate planning can assist you with relevant wording. You can choose to gift for a particular purpose, however an unrestricted gift will enable us to best utilise your gift for what we need at the time.

Your gift can be a residual after planning for family/friends, a percentage of the value of your estate, a specific sum or a gift of other assets. (note: acceptance of objects into our collection will be subject to our collection policy).

Te Hikoi is owned and operated by Riverton Heritage and Tourist Centre Trust. We are a registered charity (CC26152), so your bequest will be tax deductible.

Thank you for considering us.

SOUTHERN JOURNEY

We preserve and share the rich history of Western Southland. Our permanent displays are a popular attraction for visitors, locals and schools. We share the stories of the coming together of Maori and European ancestors on the South Coast.

We have regular temporary exhibitions which enable us to share some of our large collection which is not on permanent display.

We produce resources and books and offer research services which help people connect with their heritage.
